DEATH VALLEY NATIONAL PARK 2 DAYS

ITINERARY

DAY 1 |

- Start at the Death Valley National Park sign near Death Valley Junction.
- Get entrance tickets, Junior Ranger Booklets, and visit the Borax Museum at Furnace Creek Visitor Center.
- Explore the lowest point in North America on the salt flats at Badwater Basin.
- End the day with a scenic drive and a short hike to view colorful rock formations at Artists Drive and Artist's Palette.
- Overnight in Death Valley

DAY 2 |

- Go to the Harmony Borax Works Trail, a 0.5-mile hike to learn about the area's mining history.
- Explore the Mesquite Flat Sand dunes, perfect for sandboarding and play.
- Visit this iconic Zabriskie Point viewpoint for stunning desert landscapes.
- Drive back to Las Vegas

DAY 3 | BONUS

- Explore Rhyolite Ghost Town, an abandoned mining town outside Death Valley.
- Additional Activities: Consider additional hikes or a visit to the visitor center for Junior Ranger activities.
